

PRESS RELEASE

Senior management changes at Sligro

Veghel, 7 May 2014 - Sligro is pleased to announce the appointment of two new senior managers to its Foodservice team. Corné Mulders will take up the post of Manager Cash-and-Carry Outlets Netherlands as from 16 June 2014, succeeding Max Pietersma who recently retired. Ann Lambrechts will join the management team as Operations Manager Belgium as from 15 May 2014.

Corné Mulders (1972) gained very extensive operational experience after joining Albert Heijn in 1998. As regional manager for North-West Netherlands he was responsible for around one-third of the store estate and as a member of Albert Heijn's operational management team he was jointly responsible for the retail organisation's vision and strategy. More recently, as General Manager, he set up, managed and expanded Albert Heijn's Belgian organisation.

Ann Lambrechts (1965) has wide international experience with multinational companies active in food sales, both B-to-C and B-to-B. She recently worked for Lotus Bakeries in Spain as Country Manager for Spain and Portugal. Before that, she was Sales Director at Leonidas, with responsibility for 1,200 shops in 30 countries. As a member of the Sligro management team, Ann will be responsible for the group's operations in Belgium, in a new post created to manage Sligro's rapid growth in that country. Ann has Belgian nationality.

Sligro is the wholesale format of the listed Sligro Food Group and, as market leader, operates a nationwide network of self-service and delivery-service wholesalers serving the hospitality and recreation sectors, caterers, large users, company restaurants, forecourt shops and small and medium-sized enterprises. Sligro operates 46 self-service wholesalers and 10 delivery-service wholesalers. The delivery-service wholesalers are currently also serving the Belgian market.
